

Walk title/location	Wilverley – New Forest
Why this walk is a favourite	A figure-of-eight walk from Wilverley in the New Forest takes you through a beautiful mix of open heathland and ancient woodland. Starting near Wilverley Plain, you might spot grazing ponies as you head into Wilverley Inclosure, where tall pines and oaks shelter winding paths. The route loops back across the open moor before crossing over to the second loop, which offers more expansive views and peaceful glades. It's a varied and rewarding walk, full of changing scenery and classic New Forest atmosphere.
